Looking for something more music focused? Try ASMR Zeitgeist, whose 1.9 million followers love his sensory DJ vibe. Photo Courtesy: MaryJLeeee/Twitch If food sounds are your thing, look no further than SAS-ASMR, which is the unofficial place to be for over 9 million foodie fans from around the world. And while it doesn't have as huge of a following yet, ASMR Rooms provides the perfect escape right now. Why's that? Well, this ASMR artist recreates the ambiance of popular settings from movies, like Lord of the Rings, so that you can escape into a calming, ambient atmosphere. On Twitch, you'll find tons of streamers whose channels are dedicated to various kinds of ASMR artistry. Among them is the ever-popular MaryJLeeee, who creates rhythmic ASMR sound experiences — from running her nails over objects to whispering — in order to help listeners with insomnia, anxiety and relaxation. As MaryJLeeee points out on her channel, "most ASMR is binaural, meaning left and right sounds are heard separately," and, with this in mind, she recommends listening with high-quality headphones to get the best possible experience.
