"Santa Claus is coming to the city" One of the covers for the 1934 Sheet Musicsongpublished1934 by Leo Feist, Inc.Songwriter (s) J. Fred Coats and Haven Gilspie "Santa Claus is Comin 'to Town" [1] is one Christmas song written by J. Fred Coots and Haven Gillespie. The first registered version of the song was by Banjoist Harry Reser and his band on October 24, 1934. He was then sung on Eddie Cantor's radio show in November 1934. This version has become an immediate success with orders for 500,000 copies of Sheet music and more than 30,000 records sold within 24 hours. [2] [3] The version for The Bluebird records of George Hall and Him Orchestra of him (Vocal of Sonny Schuyler) was very popular in 1934 and reached the various rankings of the day. [4] The song was recorded by over 200 artists, including Bing Crosby and sisters Andrews, crystals, Mariah Carey, Neil Diamond, Bruce Springsteen, Frank Sinatra, Bill Evans, Chris Isaak, Temptations, Michael Bublé © , and Jackson 5. [5] The texts of Melody and lyrics Haven Gillespie's lyrics start "you would have better attention, better not cry / better not cry, I'm telling you why / Santa Claus is coming to the city". The original performance of the singer, transmitted at the height of the great depression, including verses not in the standard version of the song, encouraging listeners to be charitable and help the less fortunate at Christmas. [6] Recordings The first known registered version of the song was by Banjoist Harry Reser and his band on October 24, 1934 (Decca 264a) [7] with Tom Stacks on Vocal, the version shown in the rankings of the December 1934 variety. The song was in Sheet Music Hit, reaching the number 1. The song was also recorded for Victor Records (Catalog No. 25145a) on September 26, 1935, by Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra in Cliff Weston and Edythe Wright voice. [8] The song is a traditional Christmas standard and has been covered by numerous recording artists. Bing Crosby and the Andrews sisters briefly reached the graphics of billboards in 1947 [9] with it. In 1960 in 1962, the version of Four Seasons spoke at number 23 on Billboard. [10] In 1963, the Phil Spector manufacturer included a version of the song on him Album Rock a Christmas present for you from Phil Spector performed by crystals. [11] In 1965, the Supremes version treated at number 4 in Singapore. [12] The 70s at 800 in 1970, Rankin-Bass produced Santa Claus is Comin 'in the city, an animated television movie of an hour of an hour based on the song, with Fred Astaire who tells the Origin of Santa Claus. The same year, Jackson 5 included the song on their Jackson 5 Best Selling album. The Jackson 5 graphic version 50 years later on Billboard 100 to # 46. In 1971, the party of the partridges included the song on a family Christmas cartridge. An eccentric live recording of Joseph Spence 1972 was described as "a performance for the centuries" by the music critic Peter Margasak. [13] [14] Carpenters have released the song as a single in 1974. A rock version of Bruce Springsteen and Band Street was recorded on 12 December 1975, at the CW Post College in Brookville, New York, with Jimmy Iovine and Thom Panunzio record systems engineers. [15] [16] This version borrows Chorus Astalle from 1963 registration by the crystals. [17] The first in 1982 was released as part of the Sesame Street compilation album in harmony 2, and again in 1985 as a "My HomeTown" side, a single from NATO in the US album. [18] The Springsteen song yield received perential airplay radio to Christmastime for years; it appeared on Billboard Board's Hot Singles Regents Chart each From 2002 to 2009 due to the seasonal airline game. [Necessary quote] The live performances of the song often saw the band by encouraging the public to sing some of the texts with "or instead of á,~" the vocalists of the band (usually the line "you'd better be good for the BONTÁ AMOR", and occasionally the key line "Santa Claus is to the city "as well". Sometimes, the concert crowds sing along with the whole song, and the band, which was known to encourage this behavior for the song, would do nothing to dissuade those public from doing it, instead welcoming the crowd ' Enthusiasm. This version remains a favorite for the Springsteen concert during the months of November and December (often concluding the show), and the band is among the few who hold it in their song roster during the holidays. [Quote required] In Kidsongs 1992 video we wish you a Merry Christmas in which Santa Claus and children's children went for a sleigh ride, some of the texts had to be replaced by a repetition of the first section to make it very suitable for children. Other well-known versions of This song Includes Mariah Carey from the Album Merry Christmas (1994) and the version of Pointer Sisters from a very special Christmas album, borrowing from crystal arrangement. [19] Andy Williams performed the song on his album, I still believe in Santa Claus, which was released on 1 October 1990. [20] 2000 And after Luis Miguel recorded the song in Spanish as "Santa Claus Llegóá³ in La Ciudad "For his Christmas album Navidades (2006). [21] The version of him's song reached the peak at number 26 on the graph of the Billboard pop pop songs. [22] The song was also recorded in a Capella versions. Before straight no chaser in their 2008 album vacation spirits, and later from Pentatonix in their 2014 album which is Christmas for me. [23] In October 2015, EMI Music Publishing has lost the rights for the participation of J. Fred Coot in the song. The EMI had earned the rights to the song through the Editorial of Leo Feist in the 1980s. [24] In December 2016, DNCE covered it with many pop artists who were popular at that time. In September 2017, the Haven Gildspie family caused Memory Lane Music Group for $ 700,000, asking for an 85% stake in "Santa Claus is coming to the city", [25] The Canadian version of the singer Michael Bublé, was released on October 24th 2011, as the second trace of the Christmas album of him. His version has gained a lot of success, being the most streaming cover of the song on Spotify, with over 104 million flows, starting from January 23, 2019.
